CHE 141 Problem Set

The structures of the 20 α-amino acids found in proteins are shown on page 1051 of your text book.

There is one small problem with the structures. All the structures are wrong.

What is wrong with them?

Draw a better picture for each of the molecules glycine, lysine and aspartic acid as would find them in water.