This is in front of Javits. Instead of going straight, go right.

Keep going straight, then make a left. Stay between the Javits center and the Computer science building.
Head towards the corner of the brick Computer Science building.

Go in through this entrance
When you enter the Computer science building, look for the Computer Science Library sign. To the left of it is the stairs to the 2nd floor.

Go up the stairs to the 2nd floor.
When you go up the stairs, go right.

When you get to this hallway, make a left. The site will be across from the Library.
Make sure you check the schedule to see when the sinc site is open. And you made it!
